THE END OF LIFE'S FEVER.

Esquire John W. Bohannan Passes Away on Easter Morn.

Esquire John W. Bohannan died Sunday morning at four o'clock of consumption. He had been in feeble health for some months past and the recent death of his daughter, to whom he was greatly attached, was not without its effects in hastening the end.

Mr. Bohannan was a native of this city, forty years of age and a son of Mr. R. A. Bohannan, deceased, who was at one time the jailer of this county. He was an exceptionally bright student at the city school and subsequently studied for the ministry but concluded at last to take up law.

He was twice elected magistrate of this district and his second term had not yet expired.

Besides his wife an two children he leaves an only brother, Mr. Richard A. Bohannan, of Clay City, to mourn his death. In addition to these immediate relatives Mr. Bohannan had a wide kinship in Kentucky among the Bohannan and Major families. Judge Pat U. Major, of this city, being among the last named connections through his mother.

The funeral took place at the family residence on the South Side Tuesday afternoon, and Rev. H. G. Henderson, of the Methodist Church, of which the deceased in early life became a member, conducted the services. The body was laid at rest in the cemetery of this city.

WILLS PROBATED.

The Estate of Wm. Read, Eliza Lay and Sol Warren, Colored, Disposed Of.

The following wills were admitted to probate in the county court last Monday:

Of William Read, of Peak's Mill; Eliza Lay and Sol Warren, colored, of this city.

Read, after the payment of his debts, bequeathed to his wife, Sarah Read, during her life, the whole of his estate, both real and personal and stipulated that after her death, if she has not disposed of it in the meantime, twelve acres of his land is to go to his son, Squire Read, the remaining six acres to his step-daughter, Amanda Madison. His wife is named the executrix of the will, which is dated January 23, 1893, and witnessed by J. R. Hawkins, Jr., and W. G. Roberts.

Eliza Lay in her will of January 27, 1893, which was acknowledged by H. L. Hord and Senator F. M. Hutcheson, of Henderson, makes numerous bequests of small sums of money and her household effects to her relatives, viz: Jackson and Jesse Slaughter, brothers; James Slaughter and James R. Norrel, nephews; Sydney Blackburn, Eliza Belle, Eda, Carrie and May Slaughter, Eliza Lay and Anna M. Crutcher, Charlotte Buckner and Mattie Carr, nieces, and John W. Norrel, half-nephew, and Bertha D. Johnson, daughter, of her nephew, Enoch Johnson. The balance of the personal property not disposed of is to go to her nephew James R. Norrel, who is made executor without bond, and directed to sell the house and lot in which the deceased resided, and after paying her just debts out of the proceeds, to discharge the legacies mentioned in the will and divide the remainder equally among her lawful heirs.

Warren's will was dated March 27, 1893, which was the day before his death, and was attested by J. L. Weitzel and A. O. Caplinger. The testator, after announcing that he revoked all former wills, states that he desires his just debts to be paid first, and that to his wife, Harriet Warren, during her life or widowhood, he gives all his real, personal and mixed estate, excepting the piano, which is devised jointly to his daughters, Mary Snead and Maria Warren. At his wife's death or her marriage, that his property of every kind be equally divided among all his children, viz: Lewis Warren, Nellie Jane Brown, Maria Warren, Allen Warren and Mary Snead Warren. Mr. A. H. McClure is named as the executor of the will.

The will of Mrs. Marion Gaines, of Bridgeport, who recently died in Jefferson county, was presented for probate, but was not approved because the decedent did not die in this county. The instrument will now be presented to the Jefferson County Court.

For a perfect and permanent cure for catarrh take Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Its proprietors offer $500 reward for an incurable case of catarrh.

Ladies Missionary Society.

The Ladies Missionary Society, of the First Presbyterian Church, met on Monday afternoon, March 27th, at the residence of Mrs. W. T. Reading, on Lewis street.

The meeting was opened as usual with prayer, after which the minutes were read by the Secretary and a letter from Miss Sue Scott, of Lexington, Ky.

The increasing interest of Home Mission enlarges the demands upon the churches for sustenance in the various branches of this work.

All the money in the treasury of this society, and the money collected by Miss Rebecca Averill in jugs, the penny fund, was donated to Pikeville Mission, where there is a flourishing school conducted under the auspices of the Ebenezer Presbytery. A letter received from Dr. Ernest, of Covington, Ky., directs all money hereafter intended for Pikeville to be sent to Rev. Dr. Hendricks. The society requests the Missionary Societies of the churches in the city to send each a delegate to the next meeting of the Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church, to be held the last Monday in April at the residence of Miss Sallie Jackson, 124 Shelby street. A good attendance is requested at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

THE HOUSE OF PRAYER.

A Prison Poem by Convict 409.

The expiration of the lease of the penitentiary having set all the prisoners free from labor, time which hangs heavily on their hands is employed in games and all kinds of social amusement. Convict 409, who witnessed the turning of the chapel into a play ground, was inspired to write of the desecration in the lines published below. At his request his name and crime are omitted:

"It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves."—Matt. XXI—15

"Twas written that His house henceforth should be a house of prayer.

A place to worship God—apart from every earthly care;

But, in the days of old, again the Spirit giv'g us

To turn this sacred temple changed into a den of thieves!

A house of prayer? Oh God, what shame! that every soul within

Is filled by those who curse Thy name or take delight in sin!

Tobacco fumes, that taint the air, the only incense

Thy word is blasphemed everywhere—but few Thy name revere!

Here treacherous embryo plans for future villainy—Hell finds pastime for idle minds which work so willingly!

The sinner, the dance, stories of crime—murder Heaven or Hell!

Repeated oft! no word sublime—no thought of Great God!—all what shocking scenes and crude obscenity within!

O can the angel help but weep who writes down all this sin?

"To save the time," the prisoners say continuing their sport.

Alas! that Time should seem so long—Eternity so short!

Oh must we "Ichabod!" inscribe upon these sacred walls?

From which the faded evergreen in withered An emblem met of brighter days—sweet Easter-Reminding of our risen Lord and songs of praise to Thee.

One day in seven the Chaplain's voice repeats "Come unto Me!"

The other six? Well! the carnival of sin and revelry.

No thought of God! no hope, no prayer no love, no sign for Heaven—

Hell blinks their souls to outward care, six days of every seven!

And then to meet in such a den, when comes the Sabbath day.

No wonder God refuse them to answer when we pray.

Like Noah's dove—the preachers call "Come hither!"

And echo'd back from barren wall, and finds no place to rest.

"Come, then," thy sins as scarlet be, or red like a flame is glow.

The sinner's cry, Redeemer makes each stain whiter than snow.

Return to give Israel, ye hear his voice to-day—

Oh harken not thy sinful heart, He'll wash thy sins away.

Off thus, in vain, the Chaplain pleads with untold fervor.

But to such hardened men as these, it seems like No house of prayer! the chapel seems indeed a den of thieves!

A lodging-house at night—by day, a rookery!—neath whose eaves

The "parrow builds her nest, and swallows thro' the rafters fly."

Admitted by the holes thro' which we look and see the sky!

The plates falling from the walls—no mercy seat is there—

While Heaven seems both blind and deaf to every offered prayer!

And then the windows—iron-barred—the light comes scarcely thro'!

It seems likewise, sometimes, as if our souls were fettered too!

No gaudy temple did they rear—it was but an old stone wall.

What held for Christian labor here—what Christian work to do.

The heart ready for the sheaf—God's laborers now few.

Thro' his results, it seems that Thou art deaf to every cry.

"Cast out the money changers" now, and help us

What! fifteen thousand dollars given the work-shops to repair?

Yet but a farthing to improve the sacred shine of our church?

"Ye have robbed God!" taking His house for a warehouse where covetous sleep.

Alas! that flesh and blood's so dear—immortal souls so cheap!

Wegged in the balance for the work their hands are apt to do—

There is no profit on a soul, or man would lease that too.

Hark ye wise Legislators, now if you would gain true fame.

Erect this prison mo men inscribed to Jesus' name.

A house of prayer to fit our souls to meet Him in the skies.

Instead of bartering day by day in human merchandise.

Lord, give us back this hallowed spot where we may sometimes kneel.

And kneel that "in the house of prayer, while we pray" Thy presence feel!

Till, then, at close of each sad day, our lonely cells we'll seek.

And there, in silence weep away the thoughts we dare not speak.

The County Attorney gives notice in another column that he will proceed against all the delinquent taxpayers for the year 1892, if they do not come forward and settle up within the next thirty days. to be paid within thirty days. I desire to call the attention of the delinquent tax-payers to the new revenue law, passed November 11, 1892. See article 7, page 41, section 25. The cost of a suit in each case will be about $10 which, in a majority of the cases, will amount to more than the tax. This cost will have to be paid by the tax-payer. If the property is redeemed, and if it is not redeemed before a judgment is rendered the sheriff will take possession of your property. I have had five hundred blank petitions printed, and I expect to bring a suit in every case where a settlement is not made. Remember, if you have the cost of a suit to pay it will be your own fault and not mine.

"Tar and Tartar."

Of the many comic opera organizations on the road, that which presents the "Tar and Tartar" as the Opera House Monday night, April 10th, is one of the largest and most expensive, and, judging from the list of names of the principals, the most meritorious. Annie Meyers, a great metropolitan favorite, who for the past seasons was one of the New York Casino's brightest stars, will be seen in her original part in the opera. When the "Tar and Tartar" was originally produced at Palmer's Theatre, New York, Annie Meyers came pretty nearly being the most important factor in the opera's success. Her singing of "Way Down South in Dixie" in the melody of national airs created a furore, and the clever prima donna soubrette was the talk of the metropolis. Matilda Cortelly is also a member of the organization. Her many years with the McCaull Opera Company give her a reputation in her peculiar line which is second to none. Wm. Truise, who for several years was the baritone with the late Emma Abbot, is one of the "Tar and Tartar" principals. During the past summer Mr. Pruette created quite a sensation as Pippo in the "Masco" revival. The New York Times said Wm. Pruette's Pippo constituted the redeemed feature of the performance and was like the shadows of a great rock in a weary land. Louise Royce, Annie Signini, John S. Gilbert, Chas. Meyer, H. M. Ravencroft and Robert Watson are artists of the highest standing, and will be seen in the gorgeous production promised of the opera.

The Allen-Bradley Co., of this city, lost by fire one of their immense three-story brick warehouses at their Louisville distillery last Wednesday evening. A workman with a lantern when the head fell out and the whisky poured over the lantern and ignited. There were 12,000 barrels of whisky in the warehouse at the time which was almost consumed with the building. Both whisky and building were insured, the former valued at $168,000 without the Government tax and belonging to numerous persons in and out the State, and the latter valued at $30,000, and belonging to the distillery company. The entire plant, which is said to be the largest of its kind in the world, was threatened but saved by the splendid work of the fire department.

In the notes on the fire, the Courier-Journal said the following about Howard Rodman, of this city: "H. R. Rodman and 'Gip' Webb, two of the clerks in the office, while at work saving books and papers, were for a time imprisoned in the little building by the dense smoke and intense heat, which made egress impossible. When they finally escaped from the office and reached a place of safety they were nearly suffocated."

Messrs. Payne & Berry, insurance agents of this city, place $169,000 of the insurance upon the stock of whisky and warehouse burned.

THE CAPITAL REMOVAL.

The Matter, While Not in Danger, Perhaps, Requires Attention.

While not apprehended, after an investigation and consideration of the matter which has so often been agitated and finally settled in favor of Frankfort, that any new or reasonable grounds for the removal of the Capital will now be advanced to give any cause for uneasiness on that score, still it is advisable that an organization of the citizens should be made and a committee appointed to keep a watchful eye over the threatened movement. It can do no harm to be prepared to keep the claims of this city before the Legislature just as other cities, especially Lexington and Louisville are now urging by organized effort for themselves.

The Louisville Times treats the matter lightly in rhyme as follows:

Oh, the Capital Committee will descend upon our city,
With a very, very consequential air,
And the folks in other places, who surmised that they held their own,
Will be left to shake their fists and tear their hair.

Oh, the Capital Committee is so sadly wise and witty,
It is knowing, it is gay and debonair;
And the long proposed removal it discusses with approval
As it bets upon a flush or nearly pair.

While the champagne corks are popping, it will argue without stopping
And the million dollar bid will seem so square;
And the Lexingtonian finds its "hose" sense makes war.

For that classic little town will not get there,
What a Capital Committee! Oh, the wonder, oh, the pity—
Yet we should not let our hopes grow up too tall,
For while every member mopes at the State's profuse free lunches,
They'll forget to move the Capital at all.

LOCAL.

ADMINISTRATOR—Sidney Davis on Tuesday of last week qualified as administrator of his wife's estate, with W. S. Dehoney as security on his bond.

DEPOSIT BANK—The Board of Directors of the Deposit Bank met Monday morning and elected Capt. B. C. Milam, President; Mr. J. Buford Hendrick, Vice-President; and Mr. H. H. Watson, Cashier. These gentlemen are experienced men of business, whose ability to conduct the affairs of the bank will insure the continued success of that moneyed institution.

AN ACQUISITION—Dr. Hervey Keller, of Carlisle, son of Hon. Green R. Keller, Chief Clerk of the House, has consummated arrangements with Dr. J. A. Lucy to enter upon a practice with that well-known physician in this city.

BROKE HIS ARM—James Sower, the little son of Mr. James Sower, of the firm of Sower & Ahler, while playing with some of his companions Monday, fell from a fence and broke his arm just above the wrist.

GONE TO A HEALTHIER CLIMATE—Caswell Bennett, Jr., who was jailed a few weeks ago on a warrant sworn out by Weitzel & O'Donnell, on the charge of forging his father's name to a check for $25 and obtaining the money thereon from the firm, was released on a bond of $300 Saturday night and skipped for parts unknown. There is no telling where he has gone, but it is probable that he is out of the reach of those who would take the trouble to have him re-arrested and returned to answer for his crime.

CUTTING-TEETH—Mrs. Robert Redd, of Forks of Elkhorn, this county, is affording a new set of teeth at 50 years of age.

PAINFUL HURT—Mrs. E. A. Penick, on Wednesday night, at the Ladies Bazaar at Hal's Building, while standing on a folding chair to assist in the preparations, was suddenly precipitated to the floor by the closing of the chair. Her side struck the points of the chair and she sustained a number of very painful bruises, which will confine her to the house for a few days.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS AT PEN.—By order of the Sinking Fund Commissioners, Warden Norman contracted this week for an electric light plant for the penitentiary here. The contract was for $1,350 with the Southern Engineering Company of Louisville, and calls for ample lights to make the whole prison inside and outside as bright as day.

MURDERER CAPTURED—Monday at Paris Johnnie Parker, formerly of this city, recognized Will Minor, killed George Taylor, colored, on Arlington Heights and then fled the city. Watchman Fox at the Kentucky Central Depot at Paris, who was notified by Parker, made the arrest of Minor at the depot and had him brought to this city Wednesday and lodged in jail to stand trial at the present term of the Circuit Court. It is probable, however, that the case may not be reached before the next term of the court.

SCHOOL GIRLS' LARK—Marshal Davis, of Midway, was in the city Monday and captured four girls who ran away from the Christian Orphans' Home of that town Sunday morning, and with two of their boy friends, whom they met on the outside, resolved to come to Frankfort, intending to return that night. The escapade, it is said, was merely a harmless school girls' lark, but it created quite a sensation in Midway. Two of the girls were sent to their home near Pleasureville, and the others were taken back and placed under the strictest surveillance.

IMPROVEMENTS—Dr. U. V. Williams is having a bay window and tower erected on the front of his residence on Steele street, which will greatly improve the appearance of the building.

FORGERY—John Ellis, colored, was jailed Wednesday for forging Judge Reuben Brown's name to a check for $5.35.

AFTER CORPORATIONS—County Attorney Johnson, by order of the county court of claims, issued notices this week to all corporations in the city and county that suit will be filed for county taxes from 1887 to 1892 on property on which, it is claimed under the law, they failed to pay. The cases will first have a hearing before County Judge Williams next Monday, and if resistance is made an appeal will probably be taken to the Circuit Court, where the question will be regularly tried.

BAZAAR AND SUPPER—The ladies of the Abencher Church Guild netted, about $200 Wednesday evening at their bazaar and supper in Hal's building on Main street.

ARREST FOR SHELBY COUNTY—Sheriff Armstrong, on Monday, arrested W. F. Campbell, who is wanted in Shelbyville for obtaining money under false pretenses. The prisoner was taken to that city Tuesday.

OFF FOR CHICAGO—The State House will soon be stripped of everything, useful and ornamental that will answer the purpose of a display for Kentucky at the World's Fair. Col. M. H. Crump has been in the city this week arranging for the packing and transportation of a good part of the Geological Bureau, including the transparent pictures that adorn the capital building in the windows and doors of every department. Without the splendid specimens of coal, iron, stones, clays, woods and pictures of blue grass horses and homes collected by the Geological Bureau, Kentucky on such an occasion would be in a sad plight to properly advertise her condition and resources.

INJURED BY A FALL—Mrs. D. M. McHenry, on Tuesday, in stepping backwards, tripped on the fender at her home and fell to the floor, sustaining painful bruises about her body and head that confined her to the bed for a few days.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work. E. H. Johnson, of C. J. THE CIRCUIT COURT.

A Summary of the Proceedings of the Week.

The April term of this Circuit Court which, under the law, if the volume of business should require it, may be extended for four weeks, began Monday morning with Judge James E. Cantrill on the bench. Commonwealth's Attorney John Smith, Esq., as Clerk and Col. Thomas B. Ford as Sheriff and his deputies were present to perform their respective duties. The grand jury selected is as follows: James G. Brawner, foreman; J. Price Williams, Henry Ellwanger, John C. McChesney, Joe Sheets, John Satterwhite, J. S. Wilson, Joseph Robinson, A. Wiley, B. C. Harrod, W. F. Russell and Grant Smithers. The two petit juries are as follows: No. 1—Calvin Hockersmith, Richard Wiley, J. S. McGill, W. P. Hudson, Wash Crutcher, Jerry Brislan, George Thompson, Frank Lewis, S. W. Jenkins, Harvey Tincher, James Morris and C. H. Crockett.

No. 2—James Tracey, J. L. Cole, Lewis Lay, Joseph Snook, Wilder Dap, George V. Harrod, Lee Cardwell, G. W. Wheatley, Morris Sheets, Lee Jones, John Thompson and Robert Willis.

The case of the State v. The Mason & Foard Company for $100,000, alleged to be due in the settlement on the prison leases was set for the fifteenth day of this month.

The State will be represented by Attorney General Hendrick and Hon. John D. Carroll, of Henry county, and the Mason & Foard Company by Judge Wm. Lindsay and Mr. John W. Rodman.

Circuit Clerk Ford made his report of tax collection from Jan. 2 to Jan. 3, as follows:

46 Equity cases.....	$23.00
41 Ordinary cases.....	20.50
3 Appeals.....	1.50
3 Jury fees.....	12.00

Total.....$57.00
County Clerk Smith made the following report of the collections in his office due the State for the period between Jan. 3 and April 3.

135 Deeds.....	$67.50
101 Mortgages and powers atty.....	50.50
45 Marriage licenses.....	22.50
17 Seals.....	8.50
1 License for malt liquors.....	50.00
1 License for spirit and vinous.....	100.00
5 License for sp., vin. and malt.....	750.00
1 Merchant's liquor.....	75.00
2 Druggist's licenses.....	100.00
6 Stud licenses.....	54.00
1 License for jack.....	8.00
1 License for boat.....	1.00
2 Peddler's license.....	40.00

Total.....$1,327.00

Both reports were examined and approved.

The case of McDonald & Buckley vs. A. F. Case on a distress warrant for rent, amounting to $281.45 was decided in favor of plaintiff, and a sale ordered of all Prof. Case's school desks, chairs, book case, mattress and other property to liquidate the debt.

Case No. 5 of the Commonwealth vs. J. W. Tate's sureties on his bond was called and plaintiff filed an affidavit and motion to transfer to equity. The motion was submitted and the case set to follow the Mason & Foard Co.'s case.

George Graves, colored, for stealing a guitar, was awarded one year in the penitentiary.

The depot nuisance got a black eye both from the judge in his charge to the grand jury and from the jury on the trial of the indictment against Wesley Twyman, who keeps a colored restaurant in the old market house near the depot. A fine of $12.50 was assessed against Twyman which, with other indictments for the same offense likely to arise at every term of the court, will probably cause him to follow the example of Jesse Hocker and either quit the business or else remove to another and less public thoroughfare.

The State National Bank was awarded judgment by default against the Three Forks Investment Co. for $312.15 and interest. The temporary injunction heretofore granted by Judge Julian against the City Clerk to prevent him from collecting State licenses which, under the new revenue law, is made the duty of County Clerk to collect, was made perpetual Thursday by order of Judge Cantrill.

The case against Jno. W. Gudgel, ex-School Superintendent, of Anderson county, and the sureties on his bond for defrauding the State of about $4,000 by making false returns of the number of school children, was set for the nineteenth day of the term.

The trial of Richard Kirk for carrying concealed a deadly weapon resulted in a verdict for the defendant and he was discharged.

The sensation of the day was the Judge's dismissal of a jury which tried the case of Charles Proehl for allowing minors to play pool on his premises. The testimony, the judge thought, was sufficient to convict the defendant, but when the jury, which was composed of most of the regular panel and a few bystanders, announced they couldn't agree upon a verdict, the judge discharged them and ordered the sheriff to impanel another petit jury for the term. It is plainly the intention of the court to see that the law is enforced, but as the friends of Sheriff Armstrong say, the friends should have appointed jury commissioners at the last term of the court so that a fair and impartial selection of jurors for this term could have been made. The action of the court, however, was not intended to reflect on the sheriff, but it is regarded as a timely warning to all who may hinder or obstruct the dispensation of justice. As a confirmation of the Judge's position and condemnation of some of the jury's conduct, Proehl and Dean on yesterday confessed judgement and were fined $100. Some of the jury, who are as good citizens as there are in the county, say the instructions of court misled them and they were endeavoring to go according to them. They feel that they were very unjustly treated in being so unceremoniously discharged. Mrs. U. Kagin for selling liquor on Sunday also confessed and was fined ten dollars.

FRANKFORT, APRIL 8, 1893.

A NEW BRIDGE CERTAIN.

BIDS TO BE ADVERTISED FOR.

The Joint Committee Agree That the St. Clair Street Bridge Must be Built,

And the City Council Adopts Their Report.

It is almost certain now that the St. Clair street bridge will soon be nothing more than a memory. The joint committee of the county court and city council agreed at a meeting held Monday night that a new bridge must be erected and at a called meeting of the City Council held on Thursday evening made the following report to that body, which was adopted:

To the Board of Councilmen:

The special committee appointed at the last meeting of the council to confer with a committee of the Court of Claims with reference to the construction of a bridge across the Kentucky river from the south end of St. Clair street to the north end of Bridge street in South Frankfort, beg leave to make the following report:

A joint meeting of the two committees was had, and it was the unanimous opinion of the committee that a bridge should be built; it was also agreed that the committee should request authority of the council and Court of Claims to advertise, by postal card or letters addressed to the several bridge firms throughout the country, for plans, specifications and bids for the construction of a new iron bridge to conform to the requirements of the War Department, also for proposals for the removal of the present structure; said plans, specifications and proposals to be submitted to the council and Court of Claims for their action.

All of which is very respectfully submitted.
PAT McDONALD, R. TOBIN,
L. F. JOHNSON, JOHN E. MILES,
J. L. RODMAN, C. C. FURR,
H. H. WARSON.

It only remains now for the County Court to concur in the action of the council, when active steps will be taken to replace the ancient bridge, which has for so many years united North and South Frankfort, with an iron structure of modern style. The fact that the order of the Secretary of War to raise the bridge carries with it a heavy penalty for non-compliance renders the building of a new bridge a matter of importance that cannot be put aside. It is necessary, however, both because the ancient structure in its decadence should have long ago been replaced by another, and because this city, of all other points on the Kentucky river, for the improvement of which a large appropriation is now requested of Congress, should be prompt to remedy the obstacle to navigation complained of by river men and the Secretary of War.

The Board of Health.

We are requested to call the attention of the Board of Health to the filthy condition of Taylor Avenue. Persons living upon that thoroughfare are already complaining of the foul smell emitted by pools of water and piles of filth allowed to remain in the street and the warm weather has not fully set in. If the matter is not looked after promptly a great deal of sickness at that end of the town may be expected.

COUNTY COURT DAY.

Fine Weather and an Unusually Large Attendance of Visitors.

The weather on county court day was exceptionally fine and doubtless contributed in no small degree to cause such a large attendance in the city as that which thronged St. Clair and Main streets all that day. The stock sales were fair and not noteworthy, but the sight of eighteen or twenty of the finest trotters, saddle and general farm horses in the county on exhibition on the streets was an especially attractive feature to the visitors. The owners of fine stock, it is said, intend to make a great display on next county court day, and it is likely that such an attraction will draw a very large number of people to the city from all over the State. These monthly congregations of the citizens of the county, though fast disappearing in many counties in the State, should not be discouraged. They tend to bring the people of the city into closer touch with the people of the county, and as the interests of both are in a measure identical, they promote the general welfare and prosperity and should receive every encouragement for their continuance and large attendances. Make the country people feel that they are at home and welcome, help them to dispose of their stock and products, and neither they nor the merchants will regret that the streets of the city are almost impassable by the throngs that collect here once in every month.

Preventing Future Misery.

If there is, in this vale of tears, a more prolific source of misery than the rheumatic twinges, we have yet to hear of it. People are born with a tendency to rheumatism, but as they are with one to consumption or to scrofula, slight causes may develop this. As soon as the first manifestations appear, resources should be used to hasten the stomach, which checks its further inroads and banishes the rheumatic poison from the system. This statement fulfills exactly with the testimony of physicians who have employed this fine blood purifier in their private and general practice. It is the simplest professional and general testimonial as to the efficacy of the Bitters for malaria, liver complaint, constipation, indigestion, kidney trouble, nervousness and loss of appetite and flesh. After a wetting, whether followed by a cold or not, the Bitters is useful as a preventive of the initial attack of rheumatism.

Lee and Alexander Stephens, as well as a double page scene of Jefferson Davis taking the oath of office at Montgomery, Alabama, on February 18, 1862, and a full page scene in the Senate Chamber, in the Capital at Montgomery, during the session presided over by Hon. Howell E. Cobb.

The salutary says: "The pages of the Journal will be replete with maps, portraits and engravings. They will graphically illustrate the battles, sieges, charges, naval engagements and other transactions treated of by the writers."

The Journal is published monthly at 46 North Broadway, Lexington, or 110 Fifth Avenue, New York, and the price is $1.00 per year.

By Appointment, Succeeds to the Vacancy Created by the Death of 'Squire Bohannan.

Gov Brown on Wednesday appointed Mr. Joseph L. Rodman Magistrate, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. John W. Bohannan. Mr. Rodman gave bond that day and was immediately sworn into office. The term does not expire for about eighteen months, and the emoluments of the office are not very large, the duties can be easily performed by Mr. Rodman without taking much of his time from his store on Main street.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell by their feelings when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon as the symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by J. W. Garfield Club.

Pursuant to an order of the President of the Republican State League, of Kentucky, the members of the Garfield Club are requested to meet at their headquarters in the Sower building, on Main street, Thursday evening, April 13th, at 7:30. The object of the meeting will be to select delegates and alternates to represent the club at the State Convention, which is called to meet at Louisville, on Tuesday, May 9th, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The State Convention will consist of delegates selected by the League Clubs on the basis of one delegate for every five members, and the Garfield Club, with its membership of nearly two hundred, will be entitled to thirty-five or more delegates. The phenomenal character of the present Kentucky Legislature and the recent exposure by Democrats, who are fighting each other, of outrageous Democratic misrule, both past and present, presage a bright future for our party in this State. Recognizing this fact, and for the encouragement of Republicans here and throughout the Southern States, the National League will, to use the language of its call, begin "the movement of the Republican column, preliminary to Republican victory in 1896, in the State, which is sacred with traditions of Henry Clay, Abraham Lincoln and James G. Blaine." Let us have a big meeting. Let all who believe in the dignity of free labor and a faithful maintenance of difference between American and European wages, who believe in the established American policy of protection to American industry and American working-men, and in the new American policy of reciprocity who believe in sound money and honest gold and silver and paper currency, as money, as pledged in the National Republican platform at Minneapolis, who believe in practical Civil Service Reform, such as will separate the spoils idea from politics. Let all such enlist in the good cause, and, by our united efforts, bring victory to the party in 1896.

Invitations are extended to all to join the Garfield Club who come within the prescribed limits of its constitution and by-laws, and thus augment its representation in the State Convention at Louisville.

SABBATH TRAGEDY.

For a Woman Landon Grayson Kills Adam Norman, Both Colored.

The house opposite the State Arsenal, formerly occupied by Sae Parker, a well known character of the city, was the scene of a cold blooded murder Sunday night.

Annie Loomis, who was living there with Adam Norman, was entertaining Landon Lewis alias Grayson, when Norman entered the house about 9 o'clock. Grayson's refusing to leave on the order of Norman gave rise to a quarrel, followed by the drawing of a pistol in the hands of Grayson and the shooting in the left breast of Norman, who was unarmed. The wounded man fell to the floor unconscious and died within half an hour. Grayson made his escape and has not yet been captured. Both parties to the affray were well known colored men, Grayson bearing the reputation of an ill natured, quarrelsome man and Norman, who was an employe of Mangan & Darnell, a kind hearted genial man, whom all the patrons of the stable liked.

The jury summoned by Coroner Dehoney returned a verdict in accordance with the facts related.

To Our Friends In the Country.

We desire to call your attention to our most elegant and large line of dry goods, notions, &c. Our prices are always the lowest and quality guaranteed. We have some special bargains in every department that we purchased at a closing sale, which are worth calling to see. And, remember, with every cash purchase of one dollar you are entitled to a guess on the number of pins in the glass jar, and the first person guessing nearest will receive a round trip ticket and expenses for one week at the World's Fair. All we ask is an inspection of our line of goods to convince you our styles and prices read. Respectfully,

The Bird of Freedom.

Many have doubtless seen pictures of eagles, and especially the imprint on silver coins, but the number who have seen this kindly bird alive may be said to be comparatively few. On county court day a Mr. Ratliff, of Millville, on the Glen's Creek road, was in the city with a fine specimen of the American eagle which he captured last fall near his home by shooting him in the wing and nursing him until he recovered. The bird measured seven and one half feet from tip to tip of wings.

A gentleman from Cincinnati had written that he expected to be in the city and would purchase the bird for the Zoo, but as he failed to put in appearance Mr. Ratliff sold him for ten dollars to Mr. Fred Sutterlin, who has him on exhibition at his saloon on St. Clair street.

"Looks like a ghost!" That's what they say of the pale, thin, weak woman who's "run-down" and over-worked. Probably she knows it herself. But there's one thing she can't know, or she wouldn't be here. It's a remedy, safe and sure, for all the functional derangements, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses that make women suffer. In "female complaints" of every kind, periodical pains, internal inflammation, ulceration, and kindred ailments, it's guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money is returned. No other medicine for women is sold so. Proof that nothing else is "just as good."

Society Chatter.

April and May and a small part of June, in this latitude, may be said to be the most delightful period of the year. October and a part of November are beautiful, but they carry with them the sad thoughts of the "Melancholy Days." In the spring time, to the contrary, when the air is clad in her brightest hues and all nature sings of hope and joy, it is then that the circles of society, after the Lenten season, like the flowers after the gloom of winter, add to the charm for the devotee, a transformation as delightful as it is inspiring. It is then that the gayeties of the social season begin with renewed vigor and music, laughter and flowers drive away all thoughts of care and sorrow. To the more staid and married class the season is the perfume of existence, but to the young and unmarried it is life itself. In this city, where sociability is a marked characteristic of the people, it may be expected that all classes, young and old, are now prepared to enter with zest upon the promised pleasures. Indeed it is said that several large entertainments, in course of arrangement to take place within the next week or two, have already set society in a whirl of happy anticipation. Besides these it is known that there are many smaller card and luncheon parties among the things proposed, with the theatre and dances to vary the round, will leave no lack of entertainments to engage and interest society during the next two months.

Miss Lynne Pepper on Monday night entertained the Bell Club at progressive euchre. The prizes were won by Miss Lettie Rodman and Mr. Edmond Rodman.

The German at the Capital Hotel ball-room Thursday night was a most brilliant event. Besides the resident young ladies and gentlemen there was a larger attendance of visitors than at any previous dance. The on-lookers, also, among whom there were many visiting ladies, were more numerous than are usually present on such occasions. The revival of the gayeties after the long Lenten dearth seemed to open in this dance with double zest, which, with the brightest and most inspiring music by Prof. Wolf's orchestra, contributed to make the occasion one of the most enjoyable of the series. The ladies wore the newest and handsomest gowns, and there were many present who are classed among the most beautiful women of the State, but in the midst of dazzling lights, soul-stirring music, a profusion of fragrant flowers and the excitement of the pleasures growing out of the dance and good looking and agreeable partners among the gentlemen, it may be truly said that no young lady could fail to appear beautiful or add to the brilliance of the scene. The favors were elegant, and were distributed by Mrs. Henry Duncan and Mrs. L. P. Tarlton. Mrs. Casswell Bennett and Mrs. W. J. Hendrick were the chaperones of the evening. The dance was led by Mr. John Cannon and Miss Maria Pepper. The following were the visiting ladies: Misses Katharine McDowell and Margaret Young, Louisville; Black and Brent, Covington; Clara Fowler, Lexington; Boyden, Cincinnati; and Brock, of Lincoln, Neb. The visiting gentlemen were: Messrs. McDowell, Bolling, Peter, Bush and Dudley, Louisville; Webb, Lexington; Werner, Atlanta, Georgia; Henshaw, Cincinnati; McKay, Covington; and Power, of Flemingsburg. The home ladies were: Misses Christine Reynolds, Birdie Brown, Emily Thomas, Eva Hoge, Laura Pepper, Annie Hines, May Porter Brent, May Pepper, Rose Crittenden, Bettie Keenon, Louise Pepper, Ruth Ely, Lynne Pepper, Rebecca Johnson, Carrie Blakemore, Lizzie Pepper, Marion Lindsay, Margaret Brent, Florence Stanton and Mrs. Pythian Saffell.

The gentlemen at the Kenyon Hotel gave a progressive euchre party to the lady guests Tuesday night. The prizes were won by Mrs. Thos. Barbour and Mr. Thos. Bullock.

Miss Mary Jilson entertained her friends Wednesday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss May Kreer, of Chicago.

High Bred Trotters of Col. R. P.
Pepper & Son Bring High Prices at Chicago.

A special to the Courier-Journal, on Wednesday of last week, from Chicago says:

"Fifty-eight highly-bred trotters, the cream of rich consignments of
R. P. Pepper & Sons, of Frankfort, Ky., and Arthur J. Caton, of Caton Stock Farm, were sold at the Berry combination sale in the Dexter Park Horse Exchange to-day. The youngsters were a royal lot and the sale excited sharp competition among breeders, the majority bringing big prices. The get of Onward and Norval were the best fancied, Palo 3, by Onward out of Annette, with a record of 2:25 1-4, bringing the top-notch price, going to Edward H. Wise, a Baltimore horseman, for $1,550. The sales above $800 were:

Palo, b. h., by Onward—Annette, by Sentinel (2:29 1-4); E. H. Wise, Baltimore, Md., $1,550.
Dalgheity, br. h., by Noval—Devon, by Blackwood (2:31), second dam Cathedral, dam of Pilgrim
(2:20 3-4) and Pastoral (2:30), by George Wilkes (2:22); Peter Traux, Eau Claire, Wis., $1,500.
Nut Patch, b. h., by Nutwood—
Patchen Maid, by Mambrino Patchen; B. F. Reynolds, Tecumseh, Mich., $1,250.
Axis, blk. c., by Axtell—Ella Louise,
by Napoleon; E. H. Wise, Baltimore, Md., $1,200.
Pimento, b. h., by Nutwood—Laura
S., by Almont; D. C. Gifford, Prairie
City, Iowa, $250.

Duckers.

Growing weather.
The late storm wave did no damage here.

Miss Mary Shelton, of the Tioga neighborhood, visited Misses Annie and Jennie Fogg, last Sabbath. Miss Shelton is a very sweet, amiable young lady, and her presence is always welcomed in this community.

Mrs. Eliza Lewis, daughter of the late Thomas Thompson, died at the residence of her Uncle, Mr. James Henton, March 28th. Mrs. Lewis was loved and respected by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, all of whom will regret to learn of death.

Mr. Edwin Thompson, who is attending school at Lexington, came home Thursday of last week quite sick, with something similar to la grippe.

There is perhaps no young man in our midst whose death would have occasioned more wide-spread and universal sympathy and regret, than did that of the late John Freeman.
His career from childhood was one of moral rectitude and promising endeavor, and everyone predicted for him a brilliant future.

Our people seem to have declared war upon the whole fraternity of dogs. Their decaying carcasses are to be seen on every hand. We say let the good work go on.

Wanted—Office by thirty-five thousand and patriotic Democrats of Kentucky.
All of whom, in case of war, would hire substitutes, while "the boys in the trenches" of all parties would volunteer to do the fighting.

The Legislature won't and the B's can't settle the Mason-Foard Co.'s muddle, now let the courts investigate. Perhaps this is the best way after all.

The Mormon Church predicts that from April 6th time will be no more.
If true, this will occasion many a grievous disappointment. Quite a number of young people are looking forward to spring weddings, quite a number of persons have made up their minds to die with the cholera this summer. Millions are ready to attend the big show at Chicago, Lexington is ready to receive the State Capital (and the world besides as to that), thousands are awaiting federal appointments, and our colored friends innumerable, will not reach the "water-mill" season. Great scott!
This won't do. Perhaps a few well-timed petitions might induce our solons to resolve the Mormon Church out of order for a time. Surely they might do this for their constituents;
they have never done anything else.

Deafness Can't Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever;
nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

"Dr. Bill."

There was a crowded house at the Hollis Street Theatre Monday night and a very pleasing entertainment was accorded. The attraction, "Dr.
Bill," is a three-act comedy, by Hamilton Alde, which has had long and successful runs in London and New York, and which is a complicated farce comedy of the "Confusion" school, with a dash of Parisian suggestiveness, that was no doubt the distinct feature of the French playwright, to whom the English adapter was primarily indebted. This is the story of the piece: Dr. Brown, a young doctor with a host of friends and a large income, throws up his practice; his father-in-law, Mr. Fir-man, desiring fame for his scatters circulars broadcast and fixes a gi-gantic plate on the door inviting consultation to "Dr. Bill," as Dr.
Brown is commonly called. Mr. and Mrs. Horton live opposite. Horton is Chief of Police; Mrs. Horton, a woman of the world, sends for Brown, in order to ascertain his tendencies for the gentler sex, which she intends to report to his wife.
Brown transfers her to his friend Webster, who calls on the lady and personates the doctor. Another caller being announced, she induces Webster to retire to her boudoir, which is unlighted, and sends for the doctor's wife, who calls and is told where she may find her husband.
Webster in the darkness mistakes her for Mrs. Horton. A cuff on the head breaks the stillness. Mrs. Horton locks the door and places the key on the table. In a few moments the real doctor appears and Mrs.
Horton recognizes him. Surprised, she faints in his arms, and to restore her the doctor places the key down her back. This revives her quickly.
She tries to get his wife away without his knowledge, but where is the key? Amid the confusion, the police superintendent of police enters.
How the tangle is straightened out need not be described. Of course the ending restores harmony all around.

The piece is crowded with awkward and absurd complications, and from first to last the fun is either artistically dull or furiously diverting. The "kangaroo" attitudinious dancing was quite a feature in the performance, and one over which the house went wild.—Boston Tribune.
